

FILTROS INDUSTRIALES, S.L – FINSA

QUALITY POLICY

FINSA, aware of the importance of quality management as a means of increasing its competitiveness and prestige, as well as generating confidence, has been working under ISO 9001 certification for 20 years, offering flexibility, experience and innovation in the manufacture of filtration solutions.

FINSA management assumes the responsibility that the quality management policy is disseminated, understood, applied and maintained up to date throughout all levels in the organization. The definition of our quality policy is reflected in the following statement aimed at achieving our vision of a more solid company.

The general principles of the FINSA policy are:

1. Lead and manage the talent of the team with the aim of continuously improving the quality of products and services to meet and anticipate the needs of its customers and other interested parties.
2. Make decisions based on risk analysis on both internal manufacturing processes and external factors to improve their efficiency and effectiveness.
3. Partner with companies in the filtration sector in order to strengthen Finsa's position in the market and have a wider and complementary range of products.
4. Invest in resources and in R + D + i to develop new products to meet the filtration requirements of customers in order to become leaders in the sector.
5. Commitment to customers, suppliers, employees, society and all agents who come in contact with Finsa.

For this, we establish amendments and follow-ups of our quality system in order to achieve our objective and quality goals. Likewise, we establish communication channels to guarantee the fulfillment of our objectives.

We consider fundamental, the training, participation, involvement and sense of responsibility of all the personnel that are part of FINSA in relation to quality, which is carried out through teaching and continuous training. The quality must be the result of continuous improvement attitude and daily work of each and every single one who work in the company.

FINSA's quality policy is documented, reviewed, approved and communicated to all employees of the company.
